PRESIDENT JAMES BUCHANAN.

We have received the Inaugural Address of President Buchanan, and have given it a careful perusal. It is a plain, straightforward, business document, and will be read with interest by the whole country. The Democracy of the Union will rejoice that the Administration of the Government has passed into the hands of one so well qualified to discharge its duties, and who has given such unmistakable evidence of his devotion to the Constitution and the Union. We copy the Address in full in another column.

NOTICE.

THE SUBSCRIBER, ON THE NIGHT OF January 1st, broke the Order Boxes, to the Store occupied by Messrs. Pleasants & Miller, and stole a quantity of Letters and Papers, which will be found on the premises of the undersigned, in Salisbury. All persons are forewarned against harboring or secreting any of the above Letters or Papers, as they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Jan. 14. P. M.

NOTICE.

Those indebted to the Estate of Dr. Jno. Beard, deceased, are requested to call and settle their accounts, and those having claims against the Estate will present them for payment.

Jan. 14. JOHN BEARD, Adm'r